MISCELLANEOUS BAIL CONDITIONS

Penal Code section 646.9: Stalking

Penal Code section 646.93(c) imposes conditions on bail for stalking offenses:

Unless good cause is shown not to impose the following conditions, the judge shall impose as additional conditions of release on bail that:

- (1) The defendant shall not initiate contact in person, by telephone, or any other means with the alleged victims.
- (2) The defendant shall not knowingly go within 100 yards of the alleged victims, their residence, or place of employment.
- (3) The defendant shall not possess any firearms or other deadly or dangerous weapons.
- (4) The defendant shall obey all laws.
- (5) The defendant, upon request at the time of his or her appearance in court, shall provide the court with an address where he or she is residing or will reside, a business address and telephone number if employed, and a residence telephone number if the defendant's residence has a telephone.

Penal Code section 1270.1. Hearing prior to release on bail:

Penal Code section 1270.1(a) requires a hearing in open court before a person arrested for specified crimes can be released on bail in an amount that is either more or less than the amount contained in the schedule of bail for the offense, or for release on own recognizance. The specified crimes include serious or violent felonies, excluding 460(a). It also includes 136.1(c), 262, 273.5, 422 (felony), 646.9, 243(e)(1), and 273.6 (under certain circumstances).

Penal Code section 1275(c). Findings by court when reducing bail:

Penal Code section 1275(c) requires the court to make a finding of unusual circumstances before reducing bail below the county approved bail schedule when the person is charged with a serious or violent felony. The court must set forth those facts on the record. For purposes of this subdivision, "unusual circumstances" does not include the fact that the defendant has made all prior court appearances or has not committed any new offenses.
