SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA COUNTY OF KERN 2026 Felony Bail Schedule

In determining release or setting of bail, the judicial officer will review the following factors when setting any amount of bail (Penal Code §1275(a); California Constitution Article 1, §§12, 28(b)(3)):

- Safety of the victim;
- Safety of the victim's family;
- Seriousness of the offense(s) charged;
- Defendant's criminal record;
- Protection of the public (primary consideration);
- Probability of defendant returning to court.

The Kern County Superior Court adopts this bail schedule effective December 29, 2025.

PRE-ARRAIGNMENT RELEASE PROTOCOL

This Pre-Arraignment Release Protocol and Bail Schedule shall govern whether eligible arrestees in Kern County are released from custody before or at arraignment, with or without conditions, released with non-financial conditions, released with bail or held in custody pending arraignment.

The Judicial Officer will assess and release from custody (with release conditions where appropriate) those arrestees who pose a minimal risk of flight or danger to public or victim safety. The offenses will fall within one of four categories:

CR - Cite and Release

BR – Book and Release

MR – Magistrate Review

AR – Arraignment Review Only

The release protocol for each crime will be designated in the Bail Schedule in a column titled “Offense Category.”

Cite and Release (CR): People arrested for misdemeanor crimes designated as CR are subject to $0 bail and are not required to provide financial conditions of release. Arrestees must promise to appear in court as required by Penal Code section 1318.

Book and Release (BR): People arrested for felony crimes designated as BR are subject to $0 bail and are not required to provide financial conditions of release. Arrestees must promise to appear in court for arraignment as required by Penal Code section 1318 and must be booked by KCSO.

Individuals arrested for crimes listed in the following section “Magistrate Review (MR)” are ineligible for BR.

Individuals arrested that fall within the provisions of Penal Code section 1319.5 are ineligible for BR.

Individuals arrested that have failed to appear more than one time in the current case are ineligible for BR.

Individuals arrested for any offense where there is a sentencing enhancement, as defined in subdivision (e) of Penal Code section 1269b are ineligible for BR.

Magistrate Review (MR): Applying the factors set forth in Penal Code section 1275, and Article 1, sections 12 and 29, the magistrate will consider known facts about the offense and the arrestee as well as a risk assessment report in deciding to (1) release the arrestee on their own recognizance; (2) release the arrestee upon $0 money bail and non-financial conditions of release that are the least restrictive conditions reasonably related to the crime that are necessary to assure their appearance at court and the safety of the public and victim; (3) set a money bail amount with or without financial conditions of release that are the least restrictive conditions reasonably related to the crime that are necessary to assure their appearance at court and the safety of the public and victim; or (4) defer until arraignment consideration of the arrestee's release, if the magistrate finds by clear and convincing evidence based on the available information that public or victim safety, or the arrestee's appearance in court, cannot be reasonably assured if they are released with nonfinancial conditions or the arrestee is otherwise statutorily ineligible for release prior to arraignment.

Once the least restrictive condition or combinations of conditions is determined by the magistrate, the Kern County Sheriff's Office ("KCSO") will communicate the condition(s) to the arrestee. If the arrestee accepts the conditions, the arrestee will be released. If not, further consideration of the arrestee's release will be deferred until arraignment. Arrestees must promise to appear in court for arraignment as required by Penal Code section 1318 and they must be booked by the KCSO.

Any charges falling under the following code sections will be subject to MR and ineligible for BR:

1. Serious Felonies

- Penal Code §1192.7(c)(6) lewd or lascivious act on a child under 14 years of age;
- Penal Code §1192.7(c)(8) any felony in which the defendant personally inflicts great bodily injury on any person, other than an accomplice, or any felony in which the defendant personally uses a firearm;
- Penal Code §1192.7(c)(14) arson;
- Penal Code §1192.7(c)(18) any burglary of the first degree;
- Penal Code §1192.7(c)(19) robbery or bank robbery;
- Penal Code §1192.7(c)(20) kidnapping;
- Penal Code §1192.7(c)(23) any felony in which the defendant personally used a dangerous or deadly weapon;
- Penal Code §1192.7(c)(24) selling, furnishing, administering, giving, or offering to sell, furnish, administer, or give to a minor any heroin, cocaine, phencyclidine (PCP), or any methamphetamine-related drug, as described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 11055 of the Health and Safety Code, or any of the precursors of methamphetamines, as described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 11055 or subdivision (a) of Section 11100 of the Health and Safety Code;
- Penal Code §1192.7(c)(26) grand theft involving a firearm;
- Penal Code §1192.7(c)(28) any felony offense, which would also constitute a felony violation of Section 186.22;
- Penal Code §1192.7(c)(30) throwing acid or flammable substances, in violation of Section 244;
- Penal Code §1192.7(c)(38) criminal threats, in violation of Section 422; and any attempt or conspiracy to commit any of the above stated crimes.

- Except for Penal Code 1192.7(c)(18) (Penal Code 460(a)), these individuals are ineligible for release on their own recognizance or release on bail in an amount that is either more or less than the amount contained in the schedule of bail for the offense until a hearing is held in open court before the magistrate or judge.

2. Violent Felonies

- Penal Code §667.5(c)(6) Lewd or lascivious act as defined in subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 288;
- Penal Code §667.5(c)(8) Any felony in which the defendant inflicts great bodily injury on a person other than an accomplice, which has been charged and proved as provided for in Section 12022.7, 12022.8, or 12022.9 on or after July 1, 1977, or as specified prior to July 1, 1977, in Sections 213, 264, and 461, or any felony in which the defendant uses a firearm which use has been charged and proved as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 12022.3, or Section 12022.5 or 12022.55;
- * Penal Code §667.5(c)(9) any robbery;
- Penal Code §667.5(c)(10) Arson, in violation of subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 451;
- Penal Code §667.5(c)(14) Kidnapping;
- Penal Code §667.5(c)(21) any burglary of the first degree, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 460, wherein it is charged and that another person, other than an accomplice, was present in the residence during the commission of the burglary;
- Any attempt or conspiracy to commit any of the above stated crimes.
 - Except for Penal Code 667.5(c)(21) (Penal Code 460(a)), these individuals are ineligible for release on their own recognizance or release on bail in an amount that is either more or less than the amount contained in the schedule of bail for the offense until a hearing is held in open court before the magistrate or judge.

3. Miscellaneous Offenses

- Penal Code §243(e)(1);
- Penal Code §273.5;
- Penal Code §273.6;
- Penal Code §417.8;
- Penal Code §597(a) & (b);
- Penal Code §1320(b) & §1320.5;
- Penal Code §4532(a), (b), (e);
- Penal Code §4573 & §4573.6;
- Any felony case where the defendant has failed to appear more than one time in the current case;
- Individuals arrested for any offense where there is a sentencing enhancement, as defined in subdivision (e) of Penal Code section 1269b, are ineligible for MR.

Arraignment Review Only (AR): Arrestees charged with crimes described in California Constitution Article 1 §§ 12, subdivisions (a)-(c) or 28(f)(3) or Penal Code section 1270.1 are ineligible for release prior to arraignment.

Except for the charges as stated above under MR, Individuals arrested for offenses listed in Penal Code section 1270.1 are ineligible for BR or MR. These individuals are ineligible for release on their own recognizance or release on bail/financial conditions until a hearing is held in open court before the magistrate or judge. For these offenses the arrestees must be held until arraignment within the time outlined in Penal Code section 825, or the time by which they may have a hearing in open court as required.

Bail Increase (1270c P.C.)

When law enforcement has reasonable cause to believe that BR is not appropriate or the amount of bail set forth in the Bail Schedule is insufficient for either MR or AR, the arresting officer shall provide the booking officer at the custodial jail a copy of a 1269c P.C. declaration requesting an order setting higher bail, or requesting MR on a BR offense. Once a copy of the 1269c P.C. form has been given to the booking officer, the arrestee shall not be released until after MR. Any 1269c form must be filed with the complaint.

Source of Bail Funds (1275.1 P.C.)

When law enforcement has reasonable cause to believe that bail has been or may be obtained by felonious means, the arresting officer shall provide the booking officer at the custodial jail a copy of a declaration requesting an order pursuant to Section 1275.1 P.C. Once a copy of the 1275.1 P.C. form has been given to the booking officer, no one may release the arrestee. The arresting officer has twenty-four (24) hours to obtain Magistrate approval. If a Magistrate approves the 1275.1 P.C. application, the arrestee may not be released except upon the order of a Judge after a noticed hearing in Court. If no Magistrate approved 1275.1 P.C. form is provided to the booking officer within twenty-four (24) hours of the initial booking, then the arrestee may be released based on the arrestee's eligibility of CR, BR or MR, unless the charges are ineligible for CR, BR, or MR. Any Magistrate approved 1275.1 P.C. form must be filed with the court no later than the date set forth in Penal Code section 825.

Setting Bail

To calculate bail on any one case, use the count that imposes the longest term of incarceration and find the bail amount for that count from the "Bail Schedule." If the offense is not listed there, use the "General Bail Amounts Chart." Where a felony offense has been committed and one or more punishment enhancements are charged, the bail amount specifically described for each applicable enhancement shall be added cumulatively to the bail set forth for the specified offense.

Multiple Counts, Multiple Cases

A. Multiple Counts in a Single Case:

1. Unless the circumstances in (A)(2)-(4) below are present, the single highest bail plus all applicable enhancements shall apply.
2. If the charges occur on different occasions or involve different victims, separate bail amounts apply and those amounts are to be added together to calculate the appropriate bail amount.

3. Bail for serious or violent felonies, as enumerated in Penal Code 1192.7(c) and 667.5(c), is calculated separately and added together to determine the appropriate bail amount.

4. For sex crimes, bail for each charge is calculated separately and added together for the total amount.

B. Multiple Cases: Calculate the bail for each case separately. A separate bail is required for each separate case.

Quick Reference Guide

Penal Code §646.93(c) (regarding violations of Penal Code §646.9)

(c) Unless good cause is shown not to impose the following conditions, the judge shall impose as additional conditions of release on bail that:

- (1) The defendant shall not initiate contact in person, by telephone, or any other means with the alleged victims.
- (2) The defendant shall not knowingly go within 100 yards of the alleged victims, their residence, or place of employment.
- (3) The defendant shall not possess any firearms or other deadly or dangerous weapons.
- (4) The defendant shall obey all laws.
- (5) The defendant, upon request at the time of his or her appearance in court, shall provide the court with an address where he or she is residing or will reside, a business address and telephone number if employed, and a residence telephone number if the defendant's residence has a telephone.

Penal Code §1269b(e)

. . . In considering the seriousness of the offense charged the judges shall assign an additional amount of required bail for each aggravating or enhancing factor chargeable in the complaint, including, but not limited to, additional bail for charges alleging facts that would bring a person within any of the following sections: Section 667.5, 667.51, 667.6, 667.8, 667.85, 667.9, 667.10, 12022, 12022.1, 12022.2, 12022.3, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.53, 12022.6, 12022.7, 12022.8, or 12022.9 of this code, or Section 11356.5, 11370.2, or 11370.4 of the Health and Safety Code.

In considering offenses in which a violation of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 11350) of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code is alleged, the judge shall assign an additional amount of required bail for offenses involving large quantities of controlled substances.

Penal Code §1270.1

(a) Except as provided in subdivision (e), before a person who is arrested for any of the following crimes may be released on bail in an amount that is either more or less than the amount contained in the schedule of bail for the offense, or may be released on the person's own recognizance, a hearing shall be held in open court before the magistrate or judge:

- (1) A serious felony, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 1192.7, or a violent felony, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, but not including a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 460 (residential burglary).
- (2) A violation of Section 136.1 where punishment is imposed pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 136.1, Section 273.5 or 422 if the offense is punished as a felony, or Section 646.9, or former Section 262.
- (3) A violation of paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 243.
- (4) A violation of Section 273.6 if the detained person made threats to kill or harm, has engaged in violence against, or has gone to the residence or workplace of, the protected party.

(b) The prosecuting attorney and defense attorney shall be given a two-court-day written notice and an opportunity to be heard on the matter. If the detained person does not have counsel, the court shall appoint counsel for purposes of this section only. The hearing required by this section shall be held within the time period prescribed in Section 825.

(c) At the hearing, the court shall consider evidence of past court appearances of the detained person, the maximum potential sentence that could be imposed, and the danger that may be posed to other persons if the detained person is released. In making the determination whether to release the detained person on their own recognizance, the court shall consider the potential danger to other persons, including threats that have been made by the detained person and any past acts of violence. The court shall also consider any evidence offered by the detained person regarding the detained person's ties to the community and ability to post bond.

(d) If the judge or magistrate sets the bail in an amount that is either more or less than the amount contained in the schedule of bail for the offense, the judge or magistrate shall state the reasons for that decision and shall address the issue of threats made against the victim or witness, if they were made, in the record. This statement shall be included in the record.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a judge or magistrate, pursuant to Section 1269c, may, with respect to a bailable felony offense or a misdemeanor offense of violating a domestic violence order, increase bail to an amount exceeding that set forth in the bail schedule without a hearing, provided an oral or written declaration of facts justifying the increase is presented under penalty of perjury by a sworn peace officer.

Penal Code §1275.

- (a) (1) In setting, reducing, or denying bail, a judge or magistrate shall take into consideration the protection of the public, the seriousness of the offense charged, the previous criminal record of the defendant, and the probability of his or her appearing at trial or at a hearing of the case. The public safety shall be the primary consideration. In setting bail, a judge or magistrate may consider factors such as the information included in a report prepared in accordance with Section 1318.1.
- (2) In considering the seriousness of the offense charged, a judge or magistrate shall include consideration of the alleged injury to the victim, and alleged threats to the victim or a witness to the crime charged, the alleged use of a firearm or other deadly weapon in the commission of the crime charged, and the alleged use or possession of controlled substances by the defendant.

(b) In considering offenses wherein a violation of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 11350) of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code is alleged, a judge or magistrate shall consider the following: (1) the alleged amounts of controlled substances involved in the commission of the offense, and (2) whether the defendant is currently released on bail for an alleged violation of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 11350) of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) Before a court reduces bail to below the amount established by the bail schedule approved for the county, in accordance with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 1269b, for a person charged with a serious felony, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 1192.7, or a violent felony, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, the court shall make a finding of unusual circumstances and shall set forth those facts on the record. For purposes of this subdivision, "unusual circumstances" does not include the fact that the defendant has made all prior court appearances or has not committed any new offenses.

Penal Code §1319.5.

(a) A person described in subdivision (b) who is arrested for a new offense shall not be released on his or her own recognizance until a hearing is held in open court before the magistrate or judge.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall apply to the following:

(1) Any person who is currently on felony probation or felony parole.

(2) Any person who has failed to appear in court as ordered, resulting in a warrant being issued, three or more times over the three years preceding the current arrest, except for infractions arising from violations of the Vehicle Code, and who is arrested for any of the following offenses:

(A) Any violation of the California Street Terrorism Enforcement and Prevention Act (Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 186.20) of Title 7 of Part 1).

(B) Any violation of Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 240) of Title 8 of Part 1 (assault and battery).

(C) A violation of Section 459 (residential burglary).

(D) Any offense in which the defendant is alleged to have been armed with or to have personally used a firearm.

(E) Any offense involving domestic violence.

(F) Any offense in which the defendant is alleged to have caused great bodily injury to another person.

(G) Any other felony offense not described in subparagraphs (A) through (F), inclusive, unless the person is released pursuant to a court-operated pretrial release program or a pretrial release program with approval by the court, in which case subdivision (a) shall not apply.

(c) This section does not change the requirement under Section 1270.1 to hold a hearing in open court before the magistrate or judge in cases in which the person has been arrested for an offense specified in that section.

(d) This section does not alter or diminish the rights conferred under Section 28 of Article I of the California Constitution (Marsy's Law).
