Note: You may file one form FL-150 to respond to items 3, 4, and 6.

7 File your documents

Give your paperwork and the copies you made to the court clerk to process. You may take them to the clerk's office in person, mail them, or, in some counties, you can e-file them.

The clerk will keep the original and give you back the copies you made with a court date and time stamped on the first page of the Request for Order. The procedure may be different in some courts if you are requesting temporary emergency orders.

8 Pay filing fees A fee is due at the time of filing.

If you cannot afford to pay the filing fee, and you do not already have a valid fee waiver order in this case, you can ask the court to waive the fee by completing and filing form FW-001, Request to Waive Court Fees and form FW-003, Order on Court Fee Waiver.

Temporary Emergency (Ex Parte) Orders (not domestic violence restraining orders)

Courts can make temporary orders in your family law case to respond to emergencies that cannot wait to be heard on the court's regular hearing calendar.

The emergency must involve an immediate danger or irreparable harm to a party or children in the case, or an immediate loss or damage to property.

To request these orders:

- Complete form FL-300. Describe the emergency and explain why you need the temporary emergency orders before the hearing.
- Complete form FL-305 to serve as your proposed temporary orders.
- Include a declaration describing how and when you notified the other parties (or why you could not give notice) about your request and the hearing (see form FL-303).
- Complete other forms if required by your local court rules.
- Follow your court's local procedures for reserving the day for the hearing, submitting your paperwork, and paying filing fees.
- 10 General information about "service"

"Service" is the act of giving your legal papers to all persons named as parties in the case so that they know what orders you are asking for and have information about the hearing.

If the other parties are NOT properly served, the judge cannot make the orders you requested on the date of the hearing.

- Serve the Request for Order and blank forms
  The other party must be "served" with a:
  - Copy of the Request for Order and all the other forms and attachments filed with the court clerk.
  - Copy of any temporary emergency orders granted.
  - Blank form FL-320, Responsive Declaration to Request for Order.
  - Blank form FL-150, Income and Expense Declaration (if you served form FL-150 or FL-155).

12 Who can be a "server"

You cannot serve the papers. Have someone else (who is at least 18 years old) do it. The "server" can be a friend, a relative who is not involved in your case, a sheriff, or a professional process server.

(13) "Personal Service"

Personal service means that your "server" walks up to each person to be served, makes sure the right person is being served, and hand-delivers a copy of all the papers (and the blank forms). If the person served does not take the papers, the server may leave the papers near the person.

Note: Sometimes the papers may be personally served on the other party's lawyer (if he or she has one) in the family law case.

(14) "Service by mail"

means that your "server" places copies of all the papers (including blank forms) in a sealed envelope and mails them to the address of each party being served (or to the party being served)

The server must be 18 years of age or over and live or work in the county where the mailing took place.

Important! If you have questions about personal service or service by mail, talk to a lawyer or check with your court's Family Law Facilitator or Self-Help Center at http://www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp-courtresources.htm.

Information Sheet for Request for Order

(15) When to use personal service or service by mail

Personal Service

Personal service is the best way to make sure the other adults in your case are correctly served. Sometimes you must use personal service.

You must use personal service when the court:

- ☑ Ordered personal service;
- ☑ Granted temporary emergency orders;
- Does not yet have the power to make orders that apply to the other party because he or she has either NOT previously:
  - Been served with a Summons and Petition;*
     OR
  - · Appeared in the case by filing a:
    - a. Response to a Petition;
    - b. Appearance, Stipulations, and Waivers;
    - c. Written notice of appearance;
    - d. Request to strike all or part of the Petition; or
    - e. Request to transfer the case.

*Note: A Request for Order may be served at the same time as the family law Summons and Petition.

- 1. After serving, the server must fill out a Proof of Personal Service (form FL-330) and give it to you. If the server needs instructions, the Information Sheet for Proof of Personal Service (form FL-330-INFO) can be provided.
- 2. Take the completed Proof of Personal Service form to the clerk's office (or e-file it, if available in your court) at least 5 court days before your hearing.

Deadline: The deadline for personal service is 16 court days before the hearing date, unless the court orders a different deadline.

Service by Mail

If you are not required to use personal service, you may use service by mail.

Important! Check with your court's Family Law Facilitator's Office or Self-Help Center, or ask a lawyer to be sure you are allowed to use service by mail in your case.

A Request for Order to change a judgment or final order on the issue of child custody, visitation (parenting time), or child support may be served by mail if:

- The documents do not include temporary emergency orders;
- ✓ The court did not order personal service; and
   ✓ You have verified the other party's current home or office address. (You may use Declaration Regarding Address Verification (form FL-334).)

To change a judgment or final order on any other issue, including spousal or domestic partner support, the Request for Order may need to be personally served on the other party.

- 1. After serving, the server must fill out a Proof of Service by Mail (form FL-335) and give it to you. If the server needs instructions, the Information Sheet for Proof of Service by Mail (form FL-335-INFO) can be provided.
- 2. Take the completed Proof of Personal Service form to the clerk's office (or e-file it, if available in your court) at least 5 court days before your hearing.

Deadline: Unless the court orders a different time, service by mail must be completed at least 16 court days PLUS 5 calendar days before the hearing date (if service is in California). Other time lines apply for service outside of California.
