Rule 1.13 Court Security Videos (Effective 7/1/21)

The Kern County Sheriff's Office (KCSO) is responsible for the safety and security of all persons entering the courthouse. This responsibility requires the KCSO to respond to all incidents involving safety and security. The KCSO may use video monitoring systems, placed in courthouse public hallways, waiting areas, and some courtrooms, as well as lockups and the Clerk's Office, to assist in the security of courthouses. Not all video is recorded. Recorded video is retained for only a limited period of time. The recordings are not an official record of court proceedings, and may not be used as such. The video monitoring systems are under the control of Court Executive Officer, and any recordings from such systems are maintained in the custody of the Sheriff until they are routinely deleted.

No public disclosure of any recordings shall be made except by authority of the Court Executive Officer or his/her designee or order of Court. Any request for a recording must: (1) describe as narrowly as possible, the time, date, and location of the video sought; (2) the specific reasons disclosure is warranted; (3) why there are no other alternatives' and (4) proposals for minimizing the potential impact on overriding interests, including maintaining the court's security, litigants' rights to a fair trial, protection of minor victims and witnesses, privacy interests of jurors, protection of witnesses from embarrassment or intimidation, protection of attorney-client privilege, national security, and the maintenance of courtroom dignity and decorum. All exhibit tags and other identifying markings or information concerning each exhibit shall remain in place and shall not be disturbed. Each exhibit shall be maintained intact and in the same condition as during trial. In the event further proceedings of any Court having jurisdiction of the matter require the presence of the exhibit, the party or agency to whom it was returned shall promptly deliver the exhibit to the appropriate Court, with notice to all parties.

Improper access to such restricted areas is serious and may result in administrative sanctions including, but not limited to, termination of services and State and Federal criminal penalties.

Rule 1.18 Use of Recording and Photography Devices in Courthouse Facilities (Effective 1/1/23)

Photographing, recording, and broadcasting in courthouse facilities must be conducted solely pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 1.150 and this rule. This rule applies to the actions of the media, parties, lawyers, court employees, court security and the general public in taking, broadcast, use and/or publication of sound and visual recordings of court proceedings (including the movement of all individuals and parties to and from such proceedings), both still and moving, whether by analog, digital, film magnetic tape or by any other means of recording and/or storage.

Consistent with case law and California Rules of Court, rule 1.150, no photographs, video recordings or audio recordings may be taken anywhere in any courthouse facility with any device capable of photographing, recording or broadcasting, unless permitted by an order of the Court.

Photographing, recording or broadcasting any courtroom proceedings from within court facilities is permitted only if specifically authorized by the judge presiding over the involved proceedings, in an Order on Media Request to Permit Coverage, Judicial Council Form MC-510. The issuance of an order for the media, an attorney, a party, or a member of the public is within the discretion of the judge presiding over the involved proceedings. Each judge shall exercise his or her discretion as to what may and may not be appropriate or necessary to balance and protect the rights of litigants, witnesses, victims, the public and the media. This rule regulates only conduct occurring in and around court facilities without regard to the content of any particular message, idea, or form of speech. The Court does not intend to ban all expressive activities from the environs surrounding court facilities and intends that this rule be construed so as to provide for ample alternative channels for communication of information near but not within court facilities or on courthouse grounds.

Chapter III. Civil Rules and Civil Case Management (Effective 7/1/03; rev. 7/1/20)

It is the policy of the Superior Court of California, County of Kern, to manage all civil cases from the date of filing through final disposition. All parties are subject to this policy and are expected to proceed diligently and expeditiously in preparing civil cases for trial.

"Civil cases" as used in these Rules shall not include domestic relations/family law matters, juvenile court matters, probate matters, special petitions, actions brought for equitable relief only entitled to preferential setting for trial without the use of juries, asset forfeiture cases (Health and Safety Code sections 11470 et seq.), and criminal matters. All other cases will be included and classified at filing as general civil.

Nothing in these rules shall prevent a court, in an individual case, from issuing an exception order based on a specific finding that the interests of justice require a modification of the routine processes as prescribed by these rules.

In civil matters filed in the Multi-Divisional Courts, the court shall determine the appropriate location for the trial at the case management conference. The judge, using information concerning the parties' residences, the attorneys' residences, the likely witness' locations, estimated trial days, and other relevant factors, will determine the need to retain the case at the Multi-Divisional Court for trial or to transfer the matter to the Metropolitan Court Civil Division. (Effective 7/1/03; rev. 7/1/20)

If the matter is to be tried at the Metropolitan Division, the judicial officer shall set a trial setting conference no later than three (3) weeks following the case management conference. The Metropolitan Court Civil Division shall subsequently assign a judge for all purposes upon receipt of the filing, and notify all parties of the time and Department for the Trial Setting Conference.

A transfer to the Metropolitan Court Civil Division under this policy shall not affect the time standards for disposition of civil cases in this county.

Rule 3.1 Application of Rules - Case Types (Effective 7/1/03)

These rules apply to limited and unlimited jurisdiction general civil cases filed in the Kern County Superior Court.

Rule 3.2 Telephonic Court Appearances (Effective 7/1/03; rev. 7/1/09; renum. 1/1/13)

(b) Additional Fees

A petition for compensation for additional services rendered under Subsection (a) of this rule, or in a probate or other proceeding, shall include an itemized statement of the services rendered or to be rendered by the attorney and a reference in the caption and prayer to the request for additional fees. An appearance by the attorney or the parties is not normally required. In determining such fees, the court shall consider the experience of counsel, the time expended, the complexity of the issues, the amount involved and the results achieved.

Rule 3.7 Selection of Monitoring Judge and Setting of Case Management Conference
(Effective 7/1/03; rev. 1/1/13)

At the time the complaint is filed, a monitoring judge shall be assigned and the clerk of the court shall set a case management conference ("CMC") for the case on said judge's calendar within 180 days. The clerk shall issue Notice of CMC date, time, and department by notation on the face of the complaint or by a separate Notice of CMC.

- (a) Plaintiff must serve the Notice of CMC (if not noted on the face of the complaint) on each defendant along with the summons and complaint. Any cross-complainant shall serve upon any new party to the action a Notice of CMC, along with the cross-complaint and summons thereon. Proof of service of the complaint or cross-complaint and summons shall include proof of service of a Notice of CMC if not noted on the complaint. (Effective 1/1/13)
- (b) The term "monitoring judge" as used in these rules shall include direct calendaring judges as well as judges who are assigned cases for "all purposes" by the Presiding Department. The monitoring judge to whom the case is assigned shall be responsible to move the case along to an orderly disposition under these rules. All motions provided for under these rules shall be made to the monitoring judge. If the assigned judge is operating a direct calendar court, the assignment shall be deemed for "all purposes." (Effective 1/1/13)

Rule 3.8 Discovery (Effective 7/1/03; renum. 1/1/13)

During the period prior to the case management conference, the parties are, at a minimum, to engage in the basic discovery necessary to determine the presence or absence of all necessary parties in the action, to determine the issues which are in actual controversy and those without substantial controversy, and to properly evaluate the case for meaningful settlement negotiations.

Rule 3.9 Final Case Management Conference (Effective 7/1/03; rev. 1/1/06; renum. 1/1/13; rev. 1/1/14)

- (a) At least five (5) days prior to any final case management conference set in advance of the day of trial but no less than fifteen (15) days prior to the date the matter is set for trial each party shall serve on every other party and submit to the court the following:
1. Said party's proposed jury instructions. All parties are invited to use the Instruction Request form for the standard CACI instructions. If any standard instructions are not on the request form, or if any special instructions are going to be requested, they must be served with the request form. (Effective 7/1/03; rev. 1/1/06)
 2. All motions in limine in written form, together with any points and authorities in support thereof.
 3. A list of all witnesses that said party intends to call in his or her case in chief.

A proposed generic statement of the case to be read to the jury at the beginning of the case.

A list of all photographs, documents, physical objects or other tangible things that said party intends to have marked as an exhibit and introduced in evidence at the time of trial. (In matters where a final case management conference has been set, said items will actually be brought to the final case management conference for examination).

- (b) Prior to the final case management conference, or prior to the trial if no final case management conference is set, counsel will confer in an effort to resolve the jury instructions, issues raised in the motions in limine, the generic statement of the case, and the admissibility of the various photographs, documents, physical objects and other tangible things included in each party's exhibit list. In addition, counsel shall review the witness lists and make their best estimate of the time anticipated for the direct and cross-examination of each of the witnesses. Counsel will also attempt to work out stipulations concerning issues which are not contested. At the time of the final case management conference or at the time of trial, if no final case management conference is set, efforts will be made to resolve the remaining issues and, to the extent that they are unresolved by agreement, will be ruled upon by the court. Final Case Management orders shall be generated settling the jury instructions (subject to augmentation after the evidence is received), providing rulings on the motions in limine, providing for the admission of certain photographs, documents, physical objects or other tangible things, and settling the generic statement of the case. A master list of witnesses and the anticipated time involved for each witness will also be generated for use of court and counsel. Such other orders will be made as may be appropriate for the management of the anticipated trial.

- (c) All final case management documents shall be filed (pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 3.1110) under a cover sheet which lists the documents submitted.

Rule 3.10 Disallowance of Interruptions (Effective 7/1/03; renum. 1/1/13)

Once the case has been assigned to a trial court by the Presiding Department or called to trial by a Direct Calendar Department, it shall proceed without interruption to conclusion. No adjournment will be allowed to explore settlement, conduct discovery, marshal evidence or prepare for the presentation of any subsequent portion of the trial, except in unusual circumstances without fault of the moving party where good cause is shown in the sound discretion of the trial judge. It is also anticipated that each party will have his or her witnesses available to present his or her case without interruption or delay. An unexcused inability of a party to proceed because of a failure to schedule adequate witnesses, or otherwise, may result in sanctions being imposed, including a determination by the trial judge that said party has rested.

Rule 3.11 Differential Case Management (Effective 7/1/03; renum. 1/1/13; rev. 1/1/20)

Pursuant to California Rule of Court, rule 3.714(b), all general civil cases are subject to disposition within twelve (12) to twenty-four (24) months from date of filing of complaint.

Rule 3.12 Collection Cases (Effective 7/1/03; rev. 1/1/07; renum. 1/1/13)

In the event that during the pendency of the action, whether the defendants have appeared or not, the parties agree to resolve that matter with a program of periodic payments, all monitoring and time requirements can be terminated, provided that the conditions in (a) through (d) below are met. If the periodic payment agreement satisfies these conditions, the case will be deemed "disposed of" and will no longer be monitored. (Effective 7/1/03; rev. 1/1/07)

- (a) The parties file with the court a written stipulation and agreement setting forth in detail the terms of the periodic payments which, if made, will fully satisfy the obligations which generated the litigation.
- (b) That the stipulation and agreement further provide that on full performance of the agreement by the defendants, plaintiff will request a dismissal of the entire action with prejudice; and in the absence of such a request, the court may dismiss the action on its own motion, without notice to the parties, after forty-five (45) days has expired from the due date of the last payment unless plaintiff, within that time, requests entry of judgment as provided in Subparagraph (c).

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF KERN

- (c) That the stipulation and agreement further provide that in the event defendant fails to make any of the payments required, plaintiff may, by written declaration, notify the court of defendant's default and the amount then due under the agreement and request that the court enter judgment accordingly, together with costs of suit.
- (d) That the stipulation and agreement be unconditional so that a judicial determination will not be required and the court's only remaining function in the case would be to enter a dismissal as provided in Subparagraph (b) or a judgment as provided in Subparagraph (c).
- (e) That the parties shall file with the court a request for dismissal without prejudice reserving to the court jurisdiction to set aside such dismissal to enter judgment as provided in (c) hereof.

Rule 3.12.1 Application of Rules 3.12.2 and 3.12.3 (Effective 1/1/08; renum. 1/1/13)

Rule 3.12.2 Time for Filing (Effective 1/1/08; renum. 1/1/13; rev. 7/1/14)

- (b) At the time the complaint in Rule 3.740 collection action is filed, the clerk shall issue an order to show cause to the plaintiff designating a date of hearing on the order to show cause not less than one hundred eighty (180) days nor more than two hundred (200) days after filing, for compliance with Rule 3.740(d), and not less than three hundred forty (340) days and nor more than three hundred sixty (360) days after the date of filing of the complaint, for compliance with Rule 3.740(f). If not less than ten court (10) days prior to the order to show cause the plaintiff files a proof of service or an order for publication of the summons as to each named defendant or answer or other responsive pleading filed by each named defendant in compliance with Rule 3.740(d) or a default judgment, a request for dismissal of the entire action, a stipulated judgment or stipulation for entry of judgment, or a notice of settlement in compliance with Rules 3.740 and 3.741, the order to show cause will be vacated by the clerk. (Effective 1/1/08; rev. 7/1/14)

Rule 3.12.3 Case Management Conferences (Effective 1/1/08; renum. 1/1/13)

- (a) Upon the filing of an answer or other responsive pleading by any named defendant in a collections case, the clerk shall set a case management conference not less than ninety (90) days following the date of filing of the first answer or responsive pleading. The clerk shall give notice to all parties appearing in the action of the date, time and department of the case management conference.

- (b) The plaintiff shall serve written notice of the case management conference on any parties appearing in the action after service of notice of the case management conference by the clerk.
- (c) All parties who have appeared in the action shall file with the court and serve on all parties a case management statement no less than fifteen (15) days prior to the date of the case management conference. Failure to timely file and serve a case management statement constitutes a waiver of any objection to action taken by the court at the case management conference, including setting the case for trial, ordering the case to judicial arbitration, or setting a mandatory settlement conference.
- (d) If, based on its review of the written submissions of the parties and such other information as is available, the court determines that appearances at the conference are not necessary, the court may issue a case management order and notify the parties that no appearance is required.
- (e) At the case management conference, counsel for each party and each self-represented party must appear personally or by telephone as provided in California Rules of Court, rule 3.670 and 1.1.1 of these rules; must be familiar with the case; and must be prepared to discuss and commit to the party's position on the issues listed in Rules 3.724 and 3.727 of the California Rules of Court. (Effective 1/1/08; rev. 7/1/15)

Rule 3.13 Uninsured Motorist Cases (Effective 7/1/03; renum. 1/1/13)

- (a) At the time of filing a complaint for personal injury or wrongful death or at any time thereafter, plaintiff may file a declaration with the court establishing the items set forth in (1) through (4) below. On receipt of such a declaration, the court may classify the case as "uninsured motorist".
 - 1. All the named defendants are believed to be uninsured and the action is filed to protect the running of the statute of limitations in the event that insurance is later discovered or plaintiff, after filing the action, has learned that all the defendants are uninsured.
 - 2. Plaintiff is proceeding to arbitration with his or her insurer under the uninsured motorist provision of his or her insurance policy, and does not intend to proceed in the action against the uninsured defendants.
 - 3. In resolving the case with the defendants, it has been determined that defendants were underinsured within the meaning of plaintiff's policy which provides underinsured motorist's coverage.

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF KERN

4. Plaintiff's counsel has sought from plaintiff's insurer a concession of uninsured status of defendant to avoid the filing of the action or to dismiss it and plaintiff's insurer has refused.
- (b) Cases classified as uninsured motorist will be placed on a review calendar and plaintiff will file a certificate of progress every 90 days advising the court of the status of his claim against his insurer and the progress of the arbitration proceeding, if any.
- (c) In the event that plaintiff's claim against his insurer is not resolved within 180 days after being designated uninsured motorist, the court may require plaintiff's counsel to appear for a hearing to determine when the matter will be resolved and the action dismissed or reclassified as general civil litigation.
- (d) When plaintiff's claim is resolved against his insurer, plaintiff's counsel shall give notice to the insurer that the action is pending in this court and shall seek consent from the insurer to dismiss the action. The notice shall contain the complete title of the cause, case number and a statement to the effect that the case is governed by these Rules and that, effective as of that date of the notice, the case is reclassified as general civil litigation and a proof of service or certificate of progress is due sixty (60) days therefrom under California Rule of Court, rule 3.110. In filing the original of such notice with the court with appropriate proof of service, plaintiff's attorney shall provide the court with the name, address and phone number of the appropriate representative of plaintiff's insurer. The filing of such a notice with the court does not preclude the need to file a formal substitution of attorneys unless plaintiff's attorney intends to remain of record.

Rule 3.14.1 Alternative Dispute Resolution Policy (Effective 7/1/03; rev. 7/1/10; renum. 1/1/13; rev. 1/1/15)

The Kern County Superior Court encourages civil litigants to resolve controversy by means of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), such as mediation, early neutral evaluation, and arbitration. Thus, the parties in all civil litigation cases in which the parties agree or the court finds the amount in controversy as to each individual plaintiff is $50,000 or less, shall participate in judicial arbitration prior to the matter proceeding to trial unless the court finds that the parties are not amenable to arbitration because the parties have participated effectively in an alternate ADR process or for some other reason. Submission of a case to judicial arbitration under the California Rules of Court does not affect the time period specified in the Trial Court Delay Reduction Act (Government Code section 68600 et. seq.), except that upon written request of all parties filed with the court, the court may, in its sole discretion, order an exception of up to 90 days to the delay reduction time standards to permit arbitration of an action. (Effective 1/1/10; rev. 7/1/10; rev. 7/1/11; rev 1/1/15)

- Rule 3.14.7 Procedure for Handling Complaints about Arbitrators on the Court's Panel (Effective 1/1/10; rev. 7/1/10; renum. 1/1/13; rev. 1/1/15)

These rules establish the court's procedures for receiving, investigating, and resolving complaint about arbitrators listed on the court's panel. Nothing in these rules should be interpreted in a manner inconsistent with the California Rules of Court or as limiting the court's inherent or other authority, in its sole and absolute discretion, to determine who may be included on or removed from its lists of arbitrators. These rules also do not limit the court's authority to follow other procedures or take other actions to ensure the quality of arbitrators who serve in any court ADR program in contexts other than when addressing a complaint. The failure to follow a requirement or procedure in these rules will not invalidate any action taken by the court in addressing a complaint.

2. Informal Arraignment by Submission of the Misdemeanor Informal Arraignment Form

At the Court's discretion, attorneys who represent misdemeanor defendants who are not in custody, may arraign their clients by electronic mail, U.S. Mail, facsimile, or by submitting the form at the Clerk's Office location where the case is initially scheduled to be heard. Rule 5.3.6 Police Reports Concerning Confidential Personal Information (Effective 7/1/21)

In accordance with Penal Code section 964 and the public policy set forth therein, prosecutors and law enforcement agencies should not submit police reports, arrest reports, or investigative reports containing “confidential personal information” (as defined in subd. (b) of Penal Code section 964) of victims or witnesses to the court in support of a criminal complaint, indictment, or information, or in support of a search or arrest warrant. Rather, prosecutors and law enforcement agencies should present the court with written declarations from law enforcement officers that are devoid of this confidential personal information.

In the alternative to providing declarations to the court, the parties may submit copies of police reports, arrest reports or investigative reports that are redacted of all “confidential personal information” of victims and/or witnesses. The redacted copies of these reports provided to the court must be attached to a declaration attesting to the fact that all “confidential personal information” of victims and/or witnesses has been effectively redacted from the reports.

The Court will not undertake the task of redacting any confidential personal information of victims or witnesses from documents submitted for the Court’s consideration. The burden to ensure that this information is not included within any documents presented falls squarely on the agencies preparing and presenting them to the court. In this respect, the Court may exercise its discretion to accept or reject a police, arrest, or investigative report containing confidential personal information that is submitted in support of a criminal complaint, indictment, or information, or in support of a search or arrest warrant.

Rule 5.3.7 Access to Previously Filed Reports in Criminal Cases by Counsel of Record (Effective 1/1/23)

Upon a request submitted to the Clerk’s Office, and without further order of the Court, such reports will be provided to the petitioner’s attorney of record and the Office of the Kern County District Attorney. The reports received by counsel shall not be released to the public, and standard court costs and fees for the production of documents will apply.

The Court may also, on its own motion, make an order that the case before it shall be subject to the FLCM Rules.
- (b) FLCM Notice. The FLCM Notice shall (i) notify the Court and the opposing party of the requesting party's request to subject the case to the FLCM Rules, (ii) notify the opposing party of his or her right to serve and file an objection to the application of the FLCM Rules within 20 days of the FLCM Notice's being served, (iii) notify any public retirement plan that may be impacted as a result of the Court's order(s), and (iv) state the basis for the requesting party's request that the case be subject to the FLCM Rules. Nothing in the FLCM Rules relieves either party of his or her fiduciary duties or his or her duty to comply with the California Code of Civil Procedure or other mandatory disclosures under the California Family Code.
- (c) Timing of FLCM Notice. Either party shall have the right to serve and file the FLCM Notice within 60 days of filing a petition or a post-judgment modification in a family law action or 60 days after a response to a petition or a post-judgment modification has been filed. - (f) Electronic Service. When the parties consent to, or the Court orders the application of, the FLCM Rules, all parties will be subject to electronic service of all pleadings and documents. Each party shall notify the other party in writing as soon as possible of all electronic addresses to be included in electronic service and shall update any proofs of service accordingly.
- (g) Initial Disclosures. Each party subject to the FLCM Rules has an affirmative duty to provide to the other party with all relevant documentation as early as possible. In addition to statutory disclosure under the California Family Code, a party must, without awaiting a discovery request, provide to the other parties the following verified information:
 1. Document Requests. The Court handling the FLCM case will attach a document request to its standard scheduling order. The parties will be expected to comply fully with these document requests pursuant to the deadlines set forth in the FLCM Rules. It is understood that the parties may ask the Court to append or modify the document requests according to the specific issues or facts of each case. The Court will adopt a standard template document request that will be presumptively non-objectionable.
 2. Documents. Produce a copy of all documents and tangible things necessary to determine the character, cash flow, value of any assets, business or businesses, or any other relevant financial information. If any documents cannot be obtained after reasonable efforts by the producing party, a description by category and location and with information sufficient to support a subpoena, shall be provided by the producing party identifying where the relevant documents can be found.
 3. Categorization. The disclosing party shall ensure that all documents shall be categorized and put into an electronic file repository that is accessible by the parties and, if applicable, any experts retained or appointed who will need to review this information.
 4. Electronically Stored Information. The disclosing party shall produce all documents as they are kept in the normal course of business including the production of documents in their native file format. Upon stipulation of the parties, documents produced can be placed into a shared electronic document repository.

5. Stipulations. Unless designated otherwise, a party producing documents agrees to foundation and waives any hearsay objections to any documents produced. For all other documents, the parties shall meet and confer prior to a case management conference as to whether, for trial purposes, foundation and hearsay for documents placed into the electronic repository can be waived to avoid the time and expense of authenticating documents that are not reasonably in dispute for purposes of trial or hearing. If the parties cannot agree on the admissibility of documents, the basis for each objection shall be set forth in the status report.
- (h) Timing of Initial Disclosures. Unless an objection has been filed, all initial disclosures must be made within 60 days after service of the FLCM Notice, unless a different time is set by stipulation or order of Court.
- (i) Verified Initial Disclosure Document. The initial disclosure to the opposing party shall be verified.
- (j) Duty to Meet and Confer. The parties shall meet and confer after service of the FLCM Notice to discuss any issues related to compliance with the FLCM Rules. If an objection has been filed, the parties shall meet and confer as soon as possible after the Court orders that the parties be subject to the FLCM Rules. These issues may include, but are not limited to, (i) specific documents needed by either party, (ii) problems with obtaining ESI, (iii) third party privacy concerns and/or whether any protective orders are necessary, (iv) support issues, and (v) attorney's fees.
- (k) FLCMC Status Report. A status report shall be made to the Court no later than 10 days prior to the FLCMC. The status report shall state (i) what documents have been requested, (ii) what documents have not been produced, (iii) each party's position with regards to the respective requests for relief and any problems in obtaining discovery covered by the FLCM Rules to obtain that relief, (iv) any other expected issues that have arisen or are expected to occur, (v) whether any experts should be appointed under section 730 of the California Evidence Code, (vi) expected motions that a party anticipates filing, and (vii) a proposed solution to any problems with obtaining compliance with these rules. If attorney's fees are being requested, and if not already served, updated Income and Expense Declarations shall be served concurrently with the status report.
- (l) FLCMC. It is the expectation of the Court that before the FLCMC, both parties have been working in good faith to meet disclosure deadlines and be ready for the Court to make temporary rulings at the FLCMC. At the FLCMC, the Court should have enough information (i) to determine compliance with initial disclosures under the FLCM rules, (ii) to make any appropriate orders to ensure each party's compliance with his or her duties to disclose documentation and information to the other party, including sanctions, (iii) to make orders regarding temporary spousal support and child support, and (iv) to make orders appointing any experts. The Court has the discretion to set a further FLCMC with deadlines for compliance.

- (m) Attorney's Fees. So that the Court can comply with its duty to make an award of attorney's fees early in the proceeding, the parties shall have provided sufficient information to the Court sufficient for the Court to make orders concerning attorney's fees.
- (n) Sanctions. Separate and apart from any other remedy provided to the Court, the Court shall have the discretion to sanction a party for its failure to comply with the FLCM Rules. Failure to follow this local rule may result in sanctions including, but not limited to, monetary sanctions under section 177.5 of the California Code of Civil Procedure, vacating existing hearing dates, or evidence exclusion orders as may be determined by the Court.

Rule 7.6.1 Process and Purpose of Juvenile Dependency Mediation (Effective 7/1/03; rev. 1/1/20)

At the discretion of the court, a case may be referred to confidential mediation in an attempt to resolve jurisdictional and/or dispositional issues in dispute or case related problems, and to develop a related plan that is in the best interests of the child. Juvenile dependency mediation is a problem-solving forum in which a neutral person assists the parties in identifying and discussing the issues in an attempt to reach a full or partial agreement. The mediator is not a judge and has no authority to decide the case. The goal of juvenile dependency mediation is to find a negotiated resolution acceptable to all parties. Juvenile dependency mediation provides the parties an opportunity to re-frame their relationship from that of adversaries to cooperative partners.

The mediator will meet with the parents or guardians, with the Department of Human Services' Social Worker and/or supervisor, and with counsel for all the parties including the child(ren) to discuss their issues and concerns. No agreement will be made without the input of the interested parties and their concurrence. Children may attend juvenile dependency mediation sessions with their attorney's consent. CASA representatives may attend sessions of the children for whom they are appointed. Support persons may also be included in juvenile dependency mediation provided child's counsel waives the child's right to confidentiality, the parents agree to the support person's participation and the support person is a relative, a non-relative extended family member, a counselor or member of the clergy. The mediator may meet with each party separately or may work with everyone together in the same room.

Cases are referred to juvenile dependency mediation by a court order. Any party may request juvenile dependency mediation during the dependency process. The judge may also order juvenile dependency mediation. The parties involved in juvenile dependency mediation will determine the issues to be mediated through consultation with each other, the mediator, and the court.

Rule 7.6.3 Mediation Confidentiality (Effective 7/1/03; rev. 1/1/20)

Juvenile dependency mediation is a confidential process. Each party, including any support person, will sign a confidentiality statement which explains that the information learned as a result of juvenile dependency mediation cannot be disclosed in the proceedings by any of the parties with the following exceptions: Reasonable suspicions of child abuse not previously reported, threats of harm to self or others, and the written report outlining the resolved and contested issues. All parties and CASA representatives are relieved of confidentiality restrictions while participating in juvenile dependency mediation.

Juvenile dependency mediators have a duty when confronted with serious threats of violence against reasonably identifiable victims not previously reported, to make reasonable efforts to communicate such threats to the victim or victims and to a law enforcement agency. (Tarasoff v. Regents of University of California (1976) 17 Cal.3d 425, 431, 438) (Effective 1/1/20)

Chapter IX. Court Communication Protocol for Domestic Violence and Child Custody Orders (Effective 1/1/06; rev. 1/1/20; rev. 7/1/20)

This rule provides for a protocol that is adopted in conformity with California Rules of Court, rule 5.445 and Penal Code section 136.2. For the purposes of this rule, the following definitions apply:

- (a) “Criminal court protective order” (hereafter CPO) means any court order issued under California Penal Code section 136.2 arising from a complaint, an information, or an indictment in which the victim or witness and the defendant have a relationship as defined in California Family Code section 6211. (Effective 1/1/06; rev. 1/1/20)
- (b) “Court” means all divisions of the Superior Court of the County of Kern.
- (c) “Civil court” means any court that issues custody and visitation orders, specifically including but not limited to Juvenile, Family Law, and Probate.
- (d) “Cases involving child custody and visitation” include Family Law (dissolutions, legal separations, nullities, Domestic Violence Prevention Act, parentage, petitions for custody and support, domestic partnership actions, child support matters where custody or visitation is an issue, and any other Family Law matters related to custody or visitation), Juvenile, and Probate guardianship proceedings.
- (e) This rule is intended to protect the rights of all parties and enhance the ability of law enforcement to enforce orders. (Effective 1/1/20; rev. 7/1/20)

The purpose of this rule is to set forth a protocol to accomplish the following: (Effective 1/1/06; renum. 7/1/20)

1. For the courts to share information about the existence and terms of CPOs and other orders regarding child custody and visitation that involve the defendant and the victim or witness named in the CPO. (Effective 1/1/06; renum. 7/1/20)
2. For courts hearing cases involving child custody and visitation to take every action practicable to ensure that they are aware of the existence of any CPO involving the parties to the action currently before them. (Effective 1/1/06; renum. 7/1/20)
3. For criminal courts to take every action practicable to ensure that they are aware of the existence of any child custody or visitation court orders involving the defendant in the action currently before them. (Effective 1/1/06; renum. 7/1/20)
4. For the courts to permit appropriate visitation between a criminal defendant and his or her children pursuant to civil court orders, but at the same time provide for the safety of the protected person by ensuring that a CPO is not violated. (Effective 1/1/06; renum. 7/1/20)

This rule is not intended to change the procedures set forth in Family Code section 6380 for the electronic entry of domestic violence restraining orders into the Domestic Violence Restraining Order System. (Effective 1/1/20; renum. 7/1/20)

Rule 9.1 Court Communication - Notification of Overlapping Cases (Effective 1/1/06)

The courts shall make reasonable efforts, subject to available resources, to determine the existence of any other cases involving a CPO or custody and/or visitation orders regarding a child or party who is involved in an action before the court. If the court becomes aware of the existence of any other case involving the same child or party before the court, subject to available resources, the court clerk in the case before the court shall inform the court in the other overlapping case of the existence of the case before the court.

Rule 9.2 Requirements of Civil Courts Issuing Custody and Visitation Orders (Effective 1/1/06)

Rule 9.2.1 Inquiry by the Court (Effective 1/1/06)

Prior to issuing custody or visitation orders, the Civil Courts should inquire whether there are any CPOs in any court that involve the parties or the children of the parties.

Rule 9.2.2 Data Base Review (Effective 1/1/06)

The Civil Courts, prior to issuing any order involving custody or visitation, shall make reasonable efforts, subject to available resources, through use of national, state, or local databases or by any other means legally available, to determine if a civil restraining order or CPO exists for any party to the action. If such orders exist, the court should make reasonable efforts, subject to available resources, to obtain those orders prior to making any custody and visitation orders in the case before the Kern County Court.

Rule 9.2.3 Family Court Services (Effective 1/1/06)

Family Court Services shall make reasonable efforts, subject to available resources, to determine if a CPO exists involving any of the parties in cases where the Civil Court has ordered that a child custody or guardianship investigation be performed by Family Court Services. The result of such searches shall be conveyed to the Court in the Family Court Services' report. Although the Court may exclude criminal background checks from investigation orders, Family Court Services will report to the Court any CPO it discovers through the process of the investigation.

Rule 9.2.4 Custody and Visitation Orders Issued Subject to a CPO (Effective 1/1/06)

If a Criminal Court that has issued a CPO authorizes the Civil Court to issue an order that permits contact between an restrained person subject to a CPO and a protected person, for the purpose of permitting custody and visitation between the restrained person and his or her children, such Civil Court order shall be specific. It shall contain language setting forth the specific schedule for the contact and the safe exchange of the children, including the time, day, place, and manner of the transfer of the child. Such an order shall not contain language that conflicts with a CPO that provides for no contact with, or limits access to, the other parent.

Rule 9.2.5 Civil Courts Transmitting Temporary and Permanent Restraining Orders and Modifications (Effective 1/1/06)

Subject to available resources, when a Civil Court issues custody and visitation orders for a minor child of the parties, and the Civil Court is aware that one of the parties has a criminal case involving a CPO, the court's clerk shall inform the Criminal Court of the custody and visitation order issued.

Rule 9.3 Requirements of Criminal Courts Issuing CPOs (Effective 1/1/06)

Rule 9.3.1 Inquiry by the Court (Effective 1/1/06)

When the Criminal Court intends to issue a CPO protecting the victim(s), the Criminal Court may inquire, for the purpose stated in this rule, whether there are any children of the relationship between the defendant and the protected person.

Rule 9.3.2 Data Base Review (Effective 1/1/06)

If there are any minor children of the parties, the Criminal Court may make reasonable efforts, subject to available resources, to determine if a CPO exists for any party to the action, or whether there exists any custody and/or visitation orders for the children of the parties. A data base review to determine this information may be conducted through use of national, state, or local databases, or by any other means legally available.

Rule 9.3.3 Custody and Visitation Orders Issued Subject to a CPO (Effective 1/1/06; rev. 7/1/20)

A Criminal Court that issues a CPO may permit appropriate contact between a criminal defendant subject to a CPO and the protected person in order to allow Family or Juvenile Court-ordered visitation between a criminal defendant and his or her children. If the Criminal Court permits such contact between the restrained and protected persons, the order for contact shall be indicated on the Judicial Council form entitled Protective Order in Criminal Proceeding (CLETS) and shall comply with the requirements of Penal Code section 136.2(f)(1) and (2). A CPO takes precedence over any civil, family, or juvenile order that has been issued at any time.

Rule 9.3.4 Criminal Courts Transmitting CPOs and Modifications (Effective 1/1/06)

When the Criminal Court issues or modifies a CPO in cases where there are minor children of the parties, the issuing court's clerk shall inform any other court that has issued orders for custody and visitation of the existence of the CPO or modification.

Rule 9.4 Modification of Criminal Protective Orders (Effective 1/1/06)

Rule 9.4.1 Intended Use of This Rule (Effective 1/1/06)

This rule is intended to apply to situations in which a custody or visitation order has been issued in the Civil Court which creates a conflict with an existing CPO or where a party wishes to seek from a Civil Court an order for custody and/or visitation which would create a conflict with an existing CPO.

Rule 9.4.2 Restrained Person's Procedure to Request Modification of the CPO (Effective 1/1/06)

If a person restrained by a CPO has obtained or intends to obtain an order from the Civil Court for custody of or visitation with a minor child of the parties, in conflict with the CPO, the restrained person must first seek a modification of the CPO from the Criminal Court. The Criminal and Civil Courts may consult regarding any modification. After the hearing, if any modifications of the CPO are made by the Criminal Court, the issuing Criminal Court's clerk shall inform any other court that has issued orders for custody and visitation or that has jurisdiction over custody and visitation of the children.

Rule 9.5 Requirements of Penal Code Section 136.2(f)(1) and (2) (Effective 1/1/06; rev. 1/1/20)

A Civil Court order may coexist with a CPO subject to the following conditions:

- (a) Any order that permits contact between the restrained person and his or her children shall provide for the safe exchange of the children and shall not contain language either printed or handwritten that violates a "no contact order" issued by the Criminal Court.
- (b) Safety of all parties shall be the court's paramount concern. The Civil Court shall specify the time, date, place, and manner of transfer of the child as provided in Family Code section 3100.

Rule 9.6 Protective Orders; Transmittal/Entry in CLETS; Modifications; Terminations (Effective 7/1/12; rev. 7/1/20)

- (a) Notwithstanding other statutory requirements, any motion or request submitted for filing for the purpose of modifying or terminating a protective order issued pursuant to Sections 6221 or 6401 of the Family Code; sections 527.6, 527.8, 527.85 of the Code of Civil Procedure; or sections 213.5, 304, 362.4, or 15657.03 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or Penal Code section 136.2 must include the at time of submission, the appropriate completed "proposed" Restraining Order After Hearing form adopted by the Judicial Council of California and approved by the Department of Justice.

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF KERN

- (b) The Court shall, upon granting a motion to modify or terminate the protective order, expedite the filing and entry of Restraining Order After Hearing form for transmittal and/or entering into CLETS in accordance with statutory authority and timelines.

Correctable (Fix It) Citations, Proof of Correction and Reduced Bail

Proof of Correction and Reduced Bail

The courtesy notice will indicate whether a violation can be resolved by presenting proof of correction and paying a $25 fee for each correctable violation by the due date. This fee is a bail reduction available only to individuals who provide the Court with proof that the underlying violation has been corrected. If such proof is not provided to the Court, the full bail shown on the courtesy notice is due and payable by the due date.

Individuals cited for multiple violations on the same citation, with one or more correctable violations may provide the Court with proof that the violation has been corrected and pay a $25 transaction fee for each correctable violation for processing that portion of the citation only.

If proof of correction is accepted, the transaction fee will be processed and the correctable violation(s) on the citation will be dismissed. The reduced bail amount shown on the courtesy notice reflects the transaction fee and is required, along with other bail payments to clear the remaining violation(s) on the citation.

Acceptable proof of correction consists of certification to the Court on the form provided on the reverse side of the citation, received in the Traffic Clerk's Office by the due date. Violators may also complete a court form called Proof of Correction Certificate. Certification must be obtained from an authorized representative of one of the following agencies:

Department of Motor Vehicles, California Highway Patrol and other law enforcement agencies for driver's license and registration violations.

California Highway Patrol and other law enforcement agencies for brake, lamp, smog device and muffler violations.

For insurance violations, individuals may provide proof of correction of their insurance by submitting copies of their policy or insurance card to the Court.

The Court will grant one automatic 30-day extension of time to provide proof of correction, as long as the request for the extension is made by the due date on the courtesy notice. No further extensions will be granted.

Once a violator has paid full bail on a correctable violation, the Court will not refund bail if a violator subsequently submits proof of correction.

Individuals electing to attend traffic violator school for other violations on a citation that includes a correctable violation must register for traffic violator school and pay the full bail or set up a payment plan. If proof of correction has been provided to the Court, the total amount due will be the bail for the traffic violator school-eligible violations plus the $25 transaction fee for each correctable violation. If no proof of correction has been provided, the total amount due will be the full bail on the courtesy notice.

Correctable Citations for Mechanical, Registration, Driver's License or Insurance violations

Below are the options available to individuals cited for correctable violations. For each of these options, proof of correction may be presented to the Court in person or by mail.

Mechanical Violations

When a mechanical violation is eligible for correction, the courtesy notice will indicate two bail amounts; the higher amount is to be paid if the violator does not correct the underlying mechanical problem and the lower amount is the amount owed if the violator corrects the problem and submits that proof to the Court by the due date on the courtesy notice.

If the individual has corrected mechanical problem, obtain a law enforcement officer's signature on the back of the citation and return it to the Court on or before the due date with a $25 proof of correction fee for each violation. These violations will then be dismissed by the Court.

If the individual has not corrected, or cannot correct, the mechanical problem, the full bail is payable by the due date.

Registration Violations

If the registration is current but was not in the vehicle when cited, present the registration, or a copy if by mail, to the Court, along with a $25 proof of correction fee, on or before the due date on the citation or courtesy notice. Then the Court will dismiss the violation.

If the vehicle was not registered at the time of the citation, the registration must be paid at the DMV and the DMV can sign the citation. Present the registration, or a copy if by mail, or the signed citation to the Court, along with a $25 proof of correction fee, on or before the due date on the citation or courtesy notice. Then the Court will dismiss the violation.

Driver's License Violations

If the individual had a valid driver's license but was not carrying it when cited, present the driver's license, or a copy if by mail, to the Court, along with a $25 proof of correction fee, on or before the due date on the citation or courtesy notice. Then the Court will dismiss the violation.

If the individual did not have a driver's license, or the license was expired, the license must be obtained from the DMV and the DMV can sign the citation. Present the license, or a copy if by mail or the signed citation to the Court, along with a $25 proof of correction fee, on or before the due date on the citation or courtesy notice. Then the Court will dismiss the violation. Please note: Individuals who cannot obtain driver's licenses must pay the full amount of the bail on the courtesy notice.

Insurance Violations

If the insurance is current but was not in the vehicle when cited, present the insurance certificate or policy, or copy if by mail, to the Court, along with a $25 proof of correction fee, on or before the due date on the citation or courtesy notice. Proof of insurance must include the effective date, expiration date, policy number, make and description of the vehicle insured. Then the Court will dismiss the violation. Please note that insurance violations cannot be signed off by law enforcement officers.

If the vehicle was not insured at the time of the citation, but the violator obtained insurance, the violator may submit proof of insurance to the Traffic Clerk's Office, or mail proof to the Court, on or before the due date on the courtesy notice to receive a reduction of the bail amount.

If the vehicle was not insured at the time of the citation and the violator has not obtained insurance by the pay or appear date on the courtesy notice, the violator must pay the full bail amount on or before the due date on the courtesy notice.

IGNITION INTERLOCK DEVICES DMV FAST FACTS #31

YOU MUST SUBMIT YOUR WRITTEN PROOF OF COMPLIANCE WITH THE IID ORDER TO THE COURT BY THE DEADLINE WRITTEN ON YOUR PROBATION TERMS

What Is an Ignition Interlock Device (IID)?

An IID is about the size of a cell phone and wired to your vehicle's ignition. After installation, the IID requires you to provide a breath sample before the engine will start. If the IID detects alcohol on your breath, the engine will not start. As you drive, you are periodically required to provide breath samples to ensure the continued absence of alcohol in your system.

Can IIDs Prevent Drunk Driving?

Yes. The International Council on Alcohol, Drugs and Traffic Safety maintains that IIDs, when combined with a comprehensive monitoring and service program, lead to a 40–95 percent reduction in the rate of repeat drunk driving offenses among offenders as long as the IID remains on the vehicle.

How Do I Know If I Need to Install an IID?

A court may order you to install an IID and provide you with information about their IID requirements. Additionally, certain laws require driving under the influence (DUI) offenders to install an IID. The Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) will send you a suspension or revocation letter that will provide you with information about regaining your driving privilege. These letters may include information about mandatory IID installation, depending on which DUI law applies to you.

How Do I Install an IID?

Contact information for authorized IID manufacturers can be found at: <https://www.dmv.ca.gov/portal/vehicle-industry-services/occupational-licensing/occupational-licenses/breath-alcohol-ignition-interlock-device-baiid-manufacturer/ignition-interlock-device-iid-list/>.

Authorized IID manufacturers can provide a list of facilities and more information about installing an IID in your vehicle. Prior to installation, ensure the installer has a valid license issued by the Bureau of Automotive Repair (BAR) or Bureau of Household Goods and Services (BHGS), which are part of the Department of Consumer Affairs (DCA).

Installation and Monitoring Fees

IID installers are required to offer reduced fees for IIDs to participants whose income level falls within the federal poverty level guidelines. Documents used to verify your income could include:

- Your previous year's federal income tax return.
- Your previous three months' weekly or monthly income statements.
- Employment Development Department (EDD) verification of unemployment benefits.

If you are not eligible for reduced fees, you are responsible for the entire cost of the IID program.

What Happens After I Install the IID?

After installing the IID, the IID installer will provide you with an original Verification of Installation Ignition Interlock (DL 920) form.

If you apply for an initial IID-restricted driver license (DL), you must bring your original DL 920 and all applicable fees in person to the nearest DMV office. If you meet all eligibility requirements, DMV will place you on an IID restriction with unlimited driving privileges as long as you drive a vehicle equipped with an IID.

IID Calibration and Monitoring

Once installed in your vehicle, the IID must be calibrated and inspected by a certified installer at intervals not to exceed 60 days. Your installer ensures the device is working properly and that no violations, such as failing to take random retests, have been logged. Noncompliance with IID requirements are reported to the court or DMV (whichever applies) and you may have your driving privilege suspended or revoked.

Certain violations require DMV to immediately suspend or revoke your driving privilege if you have an optional IID restriction (for example, an attempt to remove, tamper with, bypass, or failure to comply with any requirement for IID maintenance or calibration). DMV may restore the IID-restricted driving privilege upon receipt of a new DL 920.

IID Noncompliance

Your driving privilege could be suspended or revoked if you do not comply with your IID restriction. IID noncompliance includes the following:

- Failing 1 time to service the IID within 60 days.
- Failing 3 or more times with the requirement for maintenance or calibration within 60 days.
- Attempting to bypass the IID.
- Tampering with the IID.
- Attempting to remove the IID.

Your driving privilege can also be suspended or revoked if you remove the IID before your restriction period is over.

What Happens If I Don't Own a Car?

The law allows you to request an exemption from IID installation. The Exemption for IID (DL 4062) form can be obtained from the DMV. The form must be submitted to a DMV field office or mailed to the Driver Licensing Mandatory Actions Unit (DLMAU) within 30 days of the DMV's suspension or revocation notice mail date.

What are the Requirements for an IID Exemption Approval?

To approve an exemption request, the DMV must receive a signed exemption request form that certifies under penalty of perjury that you:

- do not own or have access to a vehicle at your residence, and
- no longer have access to the vehicle used when the DUI offense occurred.

The request must also indicate you acknowledge that you are:

- only allowed to drive a vehicle that has a certified IID installed,
- required to have a valid driver license before driving, and
- immediately subject to the IID installation requirements when you purchase or gain access to a vehicle.

The DMV will only approve signed exemption requests that are submitted within 30 days of the suspension or revocation notice mail date. Upon receipt, the DMV will verify if you qualify for the exemption and notify you in writing of your eligibility. IMPORTANT: If the exemption is granted, an IID restriction will still be imposed on your driving record.

Contact the DMV directly with any and all questions about the IID process.

Notice and Advisal Re: Ignition Interlock Device

I acknowledge, understand and agree that because of my Vehicle Code conviction:

As a condition of my Probation, the Court has ordered me to install a certified Ignition Interlock Device (IID) on every vehicle I own, buy, or operate, pursuant to the Vehicle Code and requirements of the DMV. If I drive any vehicle owned by someone else, I must tell that person about this IID restriction. I must locate, hire, and pay an IID installer within 30 days of my conviction.

As a condition of my Probation, I must submit to the Court my proof of compliance with the IID order by the deadline stated in Court and written on my Probation terms. I must use the Declaration Re: Ignition Interlock Device Compliance form available at court and online at the Shafter Court website.

The Court will notify the DMV of my conviction. The DMV may re-set the length of the IID restriction and/or impose additional requirements.

I shall not remove the IID during the time period specified by the Court, or any later date or term specified by the DMV.

I must directly contact the DMV to complete all necessary forms and fulfill all necessary requirements. The DMV has its own deadlines and requirements, and I must comply with those. I must also provide written proof of compliance to the DMV.

I shall only drive a vehicle that is fitted with an operating IID during the term of the IID restriction.

I must have each vehicle I drive fitted with an IID serviced by the installer at least once every 60 days in order for the installer to recalibrate and monitor the operation of the device.

Installation of an IID on a vehicle does not allow me to drive without a valid driver's license.

I must have a current, valid driver's license and insurance to drive any vehicle.

I shall not operate a motorcycle during the term of the IID restriction.

If I have a medical problem that does not permit me to breathe with sufficient strength to activate an IID, then the DMV shall suspend my driver's license for the term of the IID restriction.

If I fail to comply with the IID order, then the Court shall notify the DMV.

If I fail to comply with the IID order, then the Court may revoke my Probation, issue a warrant for my arrest, and sentence me on the charge for which I was convicted, including possible additional time in custody and fines.

If I fail to comply with the IID order, then the People may file a new case and prosecute me for violating Penal Code 23247(e) as a misdemeanor punishable up to 180 days in custody, or a fine up to $1000.00, or both, and possible impoundment of my vehicle.

If I fail to comply with the IID order, then the DMV may suspend my driver's license, among other adverse actions.

The Court will find I failed to comply with the IID order: if I fail to install a working IID; if I drive without a functioning IID; if I do not timely show proof of compliance; if I fail to fully comply with the IID maintenance and calibration terms; if I remove or tamper with an IID; if I fail to tell the vehicle owner of the IID restriction; and/or if I allow another person to blow into the IID or start a vehicle, among other grounds.

If I falsely represent or state that I do not own or drive any vehicle, then the People may file a new case and prosecute me for perjury as a felony punishable up to 4 years in custody.

I have received from the Court a modified copy of an IID DMV Fast Facts #31 Information sheet.

I have fully read (or had read to me) and completely understand this Notice and Advisal Re: Ignition Interlock Device.

People of the State of California vs.

Case (Citation) No.:

Due Date:

You have been charged with the following violation(s):

1. You have the right to be present in court, either personally or as represented by counsel, at the time you are advised of your rights, enter a plea, and are sentenced. You must enter one of three pleas: not guilty, no contest, or guilty. A no contest plea cannot be used against you in a civil case.
2. You have the following constitutional rights:
 - a. The right to a speedy and public trial; a speedy trial shall be held within 45 days of your arraignment or not guilty plea;
 - b. The right to remain silent, to not testify, and to not incriminate yourself;
 - c. The right to confront and cross-examine all witnesses against you;
 - d. The right at the trial to present evidence in your favor which includes the right to have witnesses subpoenaed to testify on your behalf and to obtain all evidence that may exonerate you; and
 - e. The right in misdemeanor cases to be tried by a jury of twelve people.
3. You have the right to hire and have an attorney defend you at all stages of the proceedings. You are not entitled to a Court-appointed attorney in an infraction-only case. If your case involves a misdemeanor and you cannot afford an attorney, the court will appoint an attorney to represent you.
4. You have the right to be sentenced no sooner than six hours and no later than five days after a guilty or no contest plea, or a verdict.
5. You have the right to have a trial before a judge (misdemeanor cases in which right to trial by jury is waived) or court commissioner (infraction cases). If you are charged with a misdemeanor, you hereby agree by signing below that a duly appointed court commissioner may act as a temporary judge and take all pleas, decide all motions, and sentence you in this case.
6. While subject to additional statutory fines and penalties, the basic potential penalties include the following:
 - a. For an infraction, up to $250 on each first offense, unless otherwise specified by statute;
 - b. You may face a suspension of your driver's license on some offenses, such as speeding;
 - c. The Department of Motor Vehicles will place one or more points on your driving record upon conviction of each "moving" violation;

7. If you plead not guilty, the Court will schedule a Court trial and notify you of the trial date and time. If you fail to appear for trial, the Court may hold the trial without you and find you guilty.
8. You have the right to appeal if you are found guilty at trial. Whether or not you attend trial, you must file your Notice of Appeal with the Clerk's Office within 30 days of the date on which you are found guilty; if you fail to meet this deadline, you will lose the right to appeal.
9. If you plead guilty or no contest, you are giving up your rights, incriminating yourself, and admitting you committed the offense(s). This is a conviction; there will not be a trial. The Court will notify you of the fines/fees due, and of a suspension, if any. The Court will notify you if you are eligible for Traffic Violator School; if so, you must pay an additional fee if you want to attend.
10. If charged with an infraction violation of Pen. Code §§ 193.8, 272(b)(1), 330, 415, 485, 490.1, 490.7, 555, 532b(c), 602(o), 602.13, or 853.7; Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 2052, 2054, 2630, 2903, 3660, 3760, 3761, 4080, 4825, 4935, 4980, 4996, 5536, 6704, 6980.10, 7317, 7502, 7574.10, 7582, 7592, 7520, 7617, 7641, 7872(a), 8016, 8505, 8725, 9681, 9840, 9891.24(c), 19049, 21672, 25658(b), 25661 or 25662; Gov. The prosecuting agency may not have reviewed the case before the Citation/Notice to Appear was filed with the court and, if you elect to proceed as a misdemeanor, the prosecuting agency might review your case and add, delete or amend the charges. On misdemeanors, you face up to one year in jail and/or $1000, unless otherwise specified by statute.
11. If you are not a citizen and are convicted of a misdemeanor it may result in your deportation, exclusion from admission to the United States, denial of citizenship or naturalization pursuant to the laws of the United States, removal from the US, denial of re-entry, or denial of amnesty.

Traffic Advisement of Rights

Today's hearing is called an arraignment. The Court will inform you of the charge(s) against you, and you will enter a plea in one of three ways: not guilty, no contest, or guilty. You cannot provide evidence or argument today; if you want to do that, then plead not guilty and the Court will schedule a trial.

You are charged with an infraction. Unless otherwise specified by statute, the basic penalty for a first-time infraction is a fine up to $250.00 plus fees, penalty assessments and surcharges. You also face a suspension of your driver's license on some violations, such as speeding. The Department of Motor Vehicles will place one or more points on your record upon conviction of any "moving" violation.

You have certain constitutional and statutory rights:

- The right to a public and speedy trial held within 45 days of the arraignment or not guilty plea
- The right to a court trial for infractions; you do not have a right to a jury trial for an infraction
- The right to a trial before a court commissioner for infractions; you do not have the right to a trial before a judge
- The right at trial to confront and cross-examine all witnesses against you
- The right at trial to testify and present evidence in your favor, including the right to free court-subpoena services to order witnesses to appear and/or to obtain documents or other evidence that may exonerate you
- The privilege to remain silent, to not testify, and to not incriminate yourself

You have the right to have an attorney represent you at all stages of these proceedings. You do not have a right to a Court-appointed attorney for infraction-only cases. If you want an attorney to contest an infraction, then you will have to pay for one.

If you plead not guilty, then the Court will set a trial date within 45 days, unless you waive or give up that deadline for convenience. The Court will subpoena the officer who issued the citation to you. You must appear at trial; you will be able to question the officer, and present evidence and argument at that time. If you fail to appear at trial, the Court may hold the trial without you and find you guilty. If so, the Court will notify you of the judgment of guilt by mail.

You have the right to appeal the judgment if you are found guilty at trial. Whether or not you attend trial, you must file your notice of appeal with the Clerk's Office within 30 days of the date on which you are found guilty; if you fail to meet this deadline, you will lose the right to appeal.

If you plead guilty or no contest, you are giving up your rights and admitting you committed the offense(s); there will not be a trial. A no contest plea cannot be used against you in a civil court case. A no contest plea is a way of saying: "I didn't do everything the officer said, but I did violate the law." If you plead guilty or no contest, then you will be waiving and giving up all of your rights and you will also be incriminating yourself. The Court will find you guilty, and will notify the DMV of your conviction.

You have the right to be sentenced no sooner than six hours and no later than five days after a guilty or no contest plea, or after a decision at trial. If you resolve the case today, the Court will sentence you at the time of your plea today unless you expressly tell the Court you want to delay sentencing and exercise this right.

If you resolve your case today and do not delay sentencing, then your fine will be due today; proceed to the Revenue Recovery Dept. ("RRD") before leaving. If you need additional time to pay, then tell the Court. The Court can authorize a payment plan, or a one-time extension to pay the entire amount in full. If you have financial issues you want the Court to consider, you can submit form TR-320 to RRD.

If the Court authorizes Traffic Violator School ("TVS"), you will have to pay an administrative fee to the Court in addition to the school's program fee. Make sure you pay all of your fines and fees to the Court before you attend TVS. If you request a payment plan for your fine, you will not be able to attend TVS until you have first paid off the fine in full, and have filed a written motion with the Court to reopen the case and request to attend TVS, and have had the motion granted. You may attend TVS only one time every eighteen months.

You are entitled to a verbatim record of this hearing and the trial, which are recorded; you may have to pay a fee for this record.

I have fully read (or had read to me) and completely understand this Traffic Advisement of Rights. I also waive and give up all of these rights if I plead guilty or no contest.
